BARCADE LOS ANGELES is located at 5684 York Boulevard in Highland Park, less than 10 miles from Downtown Los Angeles. The Gold Line light rail runs half a mile away. Highland Park became one of LA's first suburbs in 1895. Home to a diverse populace and a history of arts, Highland Park was the center of America's Arts and Crafts Movement in the early 1900s, and the Chicano arts collectives of the 1970s. Since the 2000s, many new shops, businesses, and galleries, have opened along York Boulevard and Figueroa Street.

Barcade features a combination of classic arcade games and craft beers handpicked from local craft breweries. Barcade has eight locations throughout the northeastern United States. With a new location in Midtown Detroit opening late 2019.

Twenty-five beers are available on draft and cask at each location, and all are chosen exclusively from top American craft breweries. The selection leans towards local breweries from the northeast, including Brooklyn Brewery, Sixpoint Brewery, Cape Ann Brewing, Dogfish Head, Victory Brewing and Captain Lawrence Brewing.

Like the beer selection, the classic video games at each location are handpicked as well. Some examples of the arcade games you'll find at Barcade include: Tapper, Q*bert, Donkey Kong, Tetris, Daytona USA, Tron, Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles, X-Men, Marvel vs. Capcom and Mortal Kombat.

The original Barcade opened in 2004 in a former metal shop at 388 Union Avenue in the Williamsburg neighborhood of Brooklyn. All locations are owned and operated by the founders and each is infused with the same gritty, authentic spirit that made the original such a hit with local artists, musicians, and key influencers.
